

English

Romeo and Juliet – William Shakespeare

Writing opportunities:

Letters, diaries, cartoon strips, song lyrics and newspaper articles. The children will have a go at writing a modern retelling of a scene.

The children will be focusing on the use of synonyms and antonyms, manipulation of sentences for effect and cohesive devices.

Maths

Reasoning and problem solving linked to the four operations and real-life contexts.

Reasoning and problem solving linked to fractions and percentages and real-life contexts.

History

The children will study the changes in crime and punishment throughout the ages.

National Curriculum link: A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066.

Art

Andy Warhol and Roy Lichenstein - Pop Art

Continue with the key drawing exercises Revisit still life. Develop drawing skills using observational drawing Explore sequential drawing and narrative Explore transformation of materials following own journey to produce an object which conveys personality of maker/designer

PE

Net Wall / Core Task 2

Creative games

Science

The circulatory system

Identify and name the main parts of the human circulatory system, and describe the functions of the heart, blood vessels and blood
Describe the ways in which nutrients and water are transported

To recognise the impact of exercise on the heart and record results.

Light

To recognise that light travels in straight lines.
To explain that objects are seen because they give out (reflect) light into the eye.
To explain why shadows have the same shape as the objects that cast them.

RE

Buddhism

What do we mean by a good life?

PSHE

Relationships

Music

All the learning in this unit is focused around one song: Happy, a pop song by Pharrell Williams.

ICT – Data Handling

Excel

Select, use and combine a variety of software (including internet services) on a range of digital devices to design and create a range of programs, systems and content that accomplish given goals, including collecting, analysing, evaluating and presenting data and information

Can you help?

Can you help your child with:-

- Listening to them read
- Helping with their homework
- Practising times tables
- Practising spellings

